

Franklin County 4-H Camp Scholarship

Campers may be eligible to receive a partial scholarship for their camp fee by:

- Completing the Scholarship Application, including the essay.
- Return the completed application and all required documentation to:
Franklin County Cooperative Extension Office
ATTN: Franklin County 4-H
101 Lakeview Court
Frankfort, KY 40601
- All campers must pay a $50.00 deposit (51.50 if paid for with a card), along with a completed 4-H Camper application. The $50.00 deposit is deducted from the total camp fee. If a camper is awarded a scholarship, they will be notified.
- Completing this form does not guarantee a camp scholarship.
- Late applications will not be considered.

Completed scholarship applications must include:

_____ An essay (minimum 5 paragraphs or 25 sentences) titled “Why I want to attend 4-H Camp?” The essay should reflect why attending 4-H Camp is important to the youth and what specific lessons, skills and experiences the camper hopes to bring home from his/her stay at camp.

- The essay can be typed or handwritten
- The title and the applicants name should appear at the top of the essay.
- Proper grammar, structure (introduction, body, conclusion), and spelling will be considered, along with creativity and the content of the narrative.

_____ Completed scholarship application form (on reverse of this sheet).

_____ One reference letter (this contact should be from a teacher, counselor, community leader, etc. but not from a family member).
